JACOB W. GRUBS, Opticlan, No. 1300 Market Street.

A Brakeman Injured. Chester Lewis, a Baltimore & Ohio brakeman, was injured in an accident at McMechen last night at 8 o'clock. He was coupling a car in the railroad yard at McMechen, and was caught be-tween the draw-heads of two box cars and badly squeezed in the abdomen. He will be confined to his home for some time, but his injuries are not fatal. He is about twenty-two years of age and is married.

The "Cop" Arrested Them. The "Cop" Arrested Them.
A party of local wheelmen ran amuck a Bellaire policeman last night, which was merely a duplication of other instances, for Wheeling "bikers" have on several occasions tasted the sweets of Bellaire justice in this line. Mit Kinn and Cisrence Echols on a tandem were gaily cavorting down a Hellaire street last evening, stopping suddenly, when the strong arm of a cop came down on their collars. They protested innocence of any violation of city ordinances, but were taken to the lockup. The mayor heard their story and dismissed them, much to the jubilation of them and their friends.

Elected Directors.

The stockholders of the West Virgin-The stockholders of the West Virginia Glass Manufacturing Company met yesterday morning at the Stamm house, in this city, and elected the following board of directors: Gibson Lamb and Captain Charles Muhleman, of Wheeling; William J. Diehi, of Pittsburgh; William Lipphardt, Mark Douglas, L. L. Scheehle and G. L. Matheny, of Martin's Ferry. This is the old board, which will organize upon the return of Captain Muhleman from the east. The report of the officers showed that a most satisfactory year's business had been done.

AB, & O. Freight Wreck

A B, & O. Freight Wreck.

A freight wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio occurred yesterday morning at Benwood Junction. A draw bar on freight train No. 58 broke, while the train was coming down grade from the river bridge, causing the derailing of the empty box car on which the draw bar was attached, and as the train separated in two sections when it broke, two of the cars on the rear section crashed into the derailed car, smashing it into splinters. The damage was considerable, and the wreck caused a delay for some time on the main track. Carroll Harrington, a Benwood boy, who was standing near, and a tramp had narrow excapes. narrow excapes.

SIXTY WENT TO MACKINAC

On the Wheeling Retail Grocers' Association Excursion-The Pan-Handle's Second Atlantic City Excursion Occurs To-Morrow, and the Press Builders' Excursion to Put-in-Bay Saturday.

This is "excursion week" in Wheel-

Yesterday the Wheeling Retail Grocers' Association excursion for Mackings and other lake resorts, left at 2:30 p. m. over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling, personally conducted by Traveling Passenger Agent O. R. Wood. The party had two special coaches on the train, and numbered about sixtythe train, and numbered about mear-five people, including several from near-by towns, including Sistersville, Moundsville, Benwood and Martin's Ferry. The train reached Cleveland at 7 p. m., where the party was met by a delegation of Cleveland grocers, and at 10 p. m. they left for Detroit and Mackinac aboard one of the palatial Detroit & Cleveland steamers. Most of the party will stay the limit, fifteen days, at Mackinac Island.

at Mackinac Island.

Among those in the party were the following: H. O. Staley, Henry Staley, C. A. Klieves, MBrs. C. A. Hannan and party, E. C. Boyd, wife and daughter, J. C. Strobel, the Misses Reppeto, Sam McKee and party, H. C. Ulrich, B. A. Neff, Harry King, Mrs. M. E. Stark and those E. A. Eheling, Mrs. Frohms. A. three, F. A. Ebeling, Mrs. Frohme, A. Campbell and

The second large excursion of the week occurs to-morrow, when the Pan Handle sends its second popular price excursion of the season to Atlantic City and the seashore. Passenger Agent John G. Tomlinson says the outlook for the largest excursion of the summer out of Wheeling is bright.

Last of the three this week, comes the Press-Builders' excursion to Toledo and Put-in-Bay, on 'Saturday, via the Wheeling & Lake Eric rallroad, and to be personally conducted by Traveling Passenger Agent Sam Sherman, of this clay. Mr. Sherman is putting forth every endeavor to make this a trip that will pass into the annals of the Wheeling Builders' Exchange as the most en-joyable of their many summer outings The builders have visited Niagara Falls, Myers' Lake, Put-in-Bay, Mackinac and other resorts in the past, but most of them unite in the opinion that the Put-in-Bay trip possesses more possibilities of enjoyment than any of the other places named. This year the resort is more attractive than ever, and the great Hotel Victory (largest of summer resort hotels in the world) is being run by competent management. A feature next week, when the Wheel-ing people are there, will be the inter-national yacht races, in which yachts from Toronto, Buffalo, Cleveland, Tole-do, Detroit, Milwaukee, Duluth and Chicago will compete. Mr. Sherman has secured a parlor car and a chair car for the Wheeling party, the fare in the former being seventy-five cents and in the latter thirty-five cents.
